1. President's Message

Tricia Summerfield

Our club had a wonderful, informal start to the New Year with our February dinner meeting held as a fundraiser at the home of Jill Anderson. Jill and a small team – Wendy Atherden, Donella Caspersz and Roslyn Budd – catered a delightful meal for members and guests which raised over $700 for club projects.

March has been busy with several International Women's Day events which AD Carole Theobald managed to turn into a whole week. Congratulations to all those who contribute to the increasing profile of this important date on the calendar.

Charter members Margaret Medcalf and the late Barbara Hale were inducted into the WA Women's Hall of Fame at a function in Government House Ballroom. It is great to see such committed women recognised for the contribution to the community.

Mary Gurgone and the team at Zonta House Women's Refuge launched the Positive Pathways preventative program on 14 March. The stories of two women involved with Zonta House and the program were inspiring and sobering. As well as Mary, member Ronette Druskovich and former members Linley Adam and Denise Hamilton serve on the Refuge board.

At our March club meeting our guest speaker was member Debbie Mason who has conceived and set up a Starting Over Support project which will assist women leaving the Refuge to set up a new home. Good luck to Debbie in this challenge; she is developing excellent removalist skills!

As the Zonta year winds up, we look forward to a new year of Zonta service.

2. Margaret Medcalf inducted into the WA International Women's Day Women's Hall of Fame

Carole Theobald

At a special moving ceremony, attended by over 200 people, in Government House Ballroom on 7 March, our own Margaret Medcalf was inducted into the WA IWD Women's Hall of Fame with former member, the late Barbara Hales being included in the Roll of Honour. The event featured short videos of some of the inductees, entertainment by singers from Tendera, speeches, presentations and morning tea.

Margaret's work in preserving the state's history through her role as State Archivist, her volunteer work with the WA Historical Society as well as her over 40 years of Zonta service were acknowledged at this event, as were Barbara's commitment and achievements in education and academia. Interestingly both women are fellows of St Catherine's College, UWA.

The WA Governor, Malcolm McCusker AC CVO QC, Mrs Tonya McCusker, Hon Lisa Harvey, Minister for Women's Interests and Kerry Stopher, the former Chair of UN Women in Perth and current Chair of the IWD Collaboration all took part in the ceremony that was attended by members of the Hall of Fame including our own former members, Penny Flett and Freda Jacob.

Andrea Creado – A3 Woman of Achievement 2012, in her role as CEO of Ishar, the organisation that is the current secretariat for the IWD Collaboration’s Hall of Fame - presented the Hall of Fame brooches with Mrs McCusker.

Margaret was very surprised (shocked?) to discover that she had been nominated for the Hall of Fame, but took it all in her stride. She attended the photo shoot by the river with the West Australian at 8am one morning with the result being a lovely spread in the West on Saturday 8 March, the actual International Women’s Day.

Congratulations Margaret, we are all very proud of you and are pleased to see your service to WA, both professionally and in the community, being recognised.

3. International Women’s Day 2014

Carole Theobald

International Women’s Day is a time to celebrate the achievements of women and also to raise awareness of the inequality experienced by women around the world. According to UN Women, 1 in 3 women worldwide will experience violence in their lifetime; in South Asia 49% of women have never been able to attend school; and in 10 years violence against women will cost the Australian economy $15 billion as 750,000 women will report family violence. On the plus side many Zontians, are actively taking action to make the world a kinder, fairer and safer place.

Sue Schafers and Celia Papworth (Swan Hills) did a great job in hosting the UN Women Breakfast

In Area 3, there were many events held to celebrate IWD including:

- 5 March - UN Women IWD Breakfast in the Perth Convention and Exhibition Centre organised by a team led by the energetic Davina Hunter (the former Chair of the Young UN Women Chapter in Perth). This year the team, including Zontians Sue Schafers (Perth) and Celia Papworth (Swan Hills), faced many challenges as UN Women not only disbanded their UN Women Chapters, but also transitioned the breakfast events in each State into a more stream-lined, consistent, corporate format. This year’s event attracted around 900 attendees. It featured a lively panel discussion facilitated by Catherine Fox, journalist with the Australian Financial Review, with Elizabeth Broderick, Sex Discrimination Commissioner, Australian Human Rights Commission and Elzira Sagynbaeva, Pacific Regional Programme Director for UN Women as well as one of the sponsors Lance Hockridge, Aurizon’s CEO. Ruth Thomas (Swan Hills) and I set up a Zonta stand showing birthing kits and cushions and handed out hundreds of bookmarks with our Zonta ‘spiel’ to attendees as they walked by. Great fun!
- 5 March - a new blank greeting card was also launched at the UN Women Breakfast event that featured flowers in the purple, green and white colours of IWD. The flowers were painted WA artist Philippa Nikulinsky who donated her painting that was auctioned at the breakfast. I spent a lovely day with other IWD collaboration members, hand packing thousands of the cards, (some blank, others with an IWD message) into cellophane wrappers and sending them to Canberra to be sold on the UN Women Australia web site.
- 7 March – Margaret Medcalf’s induction into the WA IWD Women’s Hall of Fame (see page 1)
- 7 March - the Zonta Club of Peel hosted a successful breakfast at the Mandurah Quay Resort featuring Prof Lyn Beazley who was also the speaker at the Bunbury Club’s event.
- 8 March – a sundowner event at Zonta Club of Bunbury to meet Prof Lyn Beazley. Members brought a wide variety of canapés and this was a lovely evening of fellowship. I strongly encourage all members to get to know members from other clubs – we have some wonderful women in Zonta!
- 9 March – Zonta Club of Bunbury’s breakfast at the Lighthouse Resort attracted over 300 attendees. This was a glorious morning with Lyn’s speech touching, moving and inspiring everyone in the audience. This event was well organised, friendly, informative and fun. Lyn literally lit up the room and before and after her presentation chatted to attendees - young and old – male and female sharing her passion for science and enthusiasm for life. After the event, Nan Martella (Bunbury) introduced me to a very impressive young woman, Kailyn Crabbe from Manea College in Bunbury who is very interested in starting a Z Club at her school. Since the breakfast, Kailyn has made great progress in getting staff and other students involved and we hope to soon start a Z Club at Manea College.
- 9 March - Zonta Club of Dunsborough’s breakfast at the Palmer Winery featured guest speaker Teri O’Toole from Red Cross who spoke about the Myths of

Ruth Thomas (Swan Hills) on the Zonta Stand at UN Women breakfast

UN Women IWD cards

Prof Lyn Beazley is a wonderful supporter of Zonta – here at the Bunbury Breakfast

The stage is set for the Swan Hills Comedy Night

- Asylum Seekers. Members will remember Teri's inspirational talk at last year's Area 3 Workshop and I gather that this event went very well.
- 9 March – Zonta Club of Swan Hills held a Comedy Night with the Garrick Theatre performing in the gardens of the Mallard Duck Restaurant. This was a wonderful evening where we sat under the stars with our picnics and had a great laugh watching some very talented actors perform. Hopefully, Swan Hills will make this an annual event.

IWD is an ideal time to raise awareness of Zonta in the workplace. Agnes Vacca gave a presentation at her workplace at KPMG and I spoke to a group at my workplace in the Department of Transport. By wearing the purple UN Women ribbons and having bookmarks and brochures on your desk, it is easy to quietly raise the credibility and visibility of Zonta during the weeks surrounding IWD.

4. Christmas Dinner Meeting and Cara's farewell

Gill Palmer

The weather, the company and the food were perfect for December's Dinner at St Catherine's College, UWA. A smaller than usual group of members and past members including Lesley Meaney, Sandy McGregor and Diana Rigg, enjoyed a magnificent buffet and shared an evening of fellowship. The highlight of the evening was a presentation by Cara Webling, the inaugural President of the Golden Z Club. Cara has done a magnificent job in establishing the club and she summarised what members have been doing and where they are going next. The main points of her speech are reproduced below.

Raffle Prizes

On behalf of the St Catherine's Golden Z Club, I would like to thank you all for your support and guidance which allowed us to make history by forming the first Golden Z Club in District 23.

This year allowed us to dip our toes into what it means to be a Golden Z Club member. The members have assisted in many of the endeavours of the Zonta Club of Perth that included:

- the Morrision Fashion Show in which Den Scheer gave her time to model a range of clothing as well as being the photographer for the evening;
- several members attending the District 23 Conference and assisting many Zontians over the weekend;
- working together with the residents of Trinity College to collate birthing kits that are sent overseas to provide a clean birthing environment for women in developing countries; and
- assisting with the High Tea and photo exhibition.

Next year, the club will have many of their own fundraising and awareness activities which will benefit the women and children within the local and the not so local community. The Golden Z Club will be welcoming new members who will bring with them new ideas. We are fortunate enough to have ten founding members continuing their membership:

- Gemma – Vice President who will be commencing her Master's degree in Music Psychology
- Vanitha – Golden Z Secretary who will be commencing her third year in Landscape Architecture
- Katie and Liana – Directors of the Golden Z who will be continuing onto their fourth year in Medicine
- Danah – who is in her second year of Human Bio Neuro Science
- Lauren - is moving into her fourth year of Bio Medical Science and Law
- Christine – will also be continuing on with her studies in Law and the Arts
- Rebecca – is completing her Masters in Zoology
- Simone – is commencing a Masters and PhD in Psychology
- And last but by no means least Den, who is finishing her degree in Fine Arts and has just started planning her second book which will be aimed at Lower Primary children.

I think we can all agree that the future of the Golden Z club is most definitely in safe hands!

Cara won the hamper!

There are a few members who have left St Catherine's and therefore the Golden Z Club to either pursue further studies or begin their careers.

- Kate has been offered a place in Brisbane to undertake a Masters in Psychology
- Nicola who was the Golden Z Treasurer has moved to Switzerland for a one year exchange and is continuing to study Law
- Georgina who is also studying law has relocated to Adelaide to finish her studies.
- As for me the President of the Golden Z Club 2013, I have accepted a two year teaching position in Lombadina, an isolated community in the Dampier Peninsula within the Kimberley, 200km North of Broome. I will be teaching Lower Primary. I am looking forward to learning about the Bardi people's culture which is immersed within the community. I am excited for what lies ahead and am ready as I can be for the challenges that I will face – there of course will be a few surprises ahead of me I am sure! I am also looking forward to being part of their community.

I will of course keep you posted with the news of my adventures in Lombadina. Once again, thank you very much for making me feel so welcomed at the Zonta meetings each month and I wish you all a Merry Christmas/Happy Holidays and a very Happy and Healthy New Year.

Many thanks Cara for getting the Golden Z Club off to such a great start!

Editor's note: Following a successful promotion during Orientation Week, the Golden Z Club has attracted 30 members for 2014, including young women and young men. The future is looking good for the club.

5. February Dinner Meeting

Wendy Atherden

A delightful change to our normal dinner meeting was the evening at Jill Anderson's place on February 13th. Tables and chairs were set up on Jill's expansive back lawn, the weather was perfect and we all had a chance to catch up on our friend's "doings" over the Christmas period.

Jill had organized all the food and the preparation was part of the fun for Jill, Wendy, Roslyn and Donella. We were spoiled with delicious ham, salads, frittata, bread, punch and excellent wine from Samson's cellars. Dessert was a scrumptious fruit salad, meringues and cream. The weather was warm and still and we were pleased to have the company of some invited guests. Tricia managed to fit the necessary business part of the meeting into a few minutes so the flow of conversation was barely interrupted.

Jill, you are a wonderful, organized hostess and we are all so pleased you initiated this special evening.

Thank you Jill for your wonderful hospitality and Wendy, Roslyn and Donella for all their help in making it a very enjoyable evening.

Members and friends enjoy the meal

Yummy food waiting to be eaten.

6. SOS - Debbie Mason gets things moving

Carole Theobald

Zontians are an inspiring bunch and none more so than Debbie Mason. At the March Dinner meeting Debbie shared her 'journey' to the Eastern States that ended with her forming Starting Over Support on her return – a project to help women 'refurnish' their lives when leaving a refuge....

Debbie described how on a recent 3 week trip travelling alone in a campervan to Adelaide and Castlemaine she had about 9 days to literally sit, drive and think. She kept thinking of a woman in Adelaide who had been helping homeless people get off the street and whose efforts had culminated in a $16 million donation by the SA State Government to build a hostel that houses 290 senior homeless people and is operated by volunteers.

I kept thinking, surely there is something that could be done for the homeless in Perth along these lines and ... kept being brought back to the Zonta House Refuge and what happens to the residents when they leave there. Where do they go? How do they manage to begin their life on their own, especially if they have come from a controlling, potentially violent relationship where they had no access to money and no say in their own lives?

Debbie had previously donated furniture to the Refuge and thought that she could take this a step further. She has definitely done this. She has now established a small warehouse where goods are stored; created a list of furniture, furnishings and equipment as 'start up packages' – ranging from beds to potato peelers; arranged for volunteers to collect and deliver the furniture; and set up a system to receive donations to buy items such as fridges, cleaning agents etc that may not always be available via donated goods. She is supported by electricians who check that all donated electrical goods are safe to use and continuously looks for sponsors and donors to build up the project.

Starting Over Support has been adopted under the umbrella of the Zonta House Refuge Association and you can make donations via the form on our club website at www.zontaperth.org.au. If you can donate time, goods or money, please let Debbie know via the form.

Launch of Positive Pathways

On Friday 14 March, the Zonta House Refuge Association's Positive Pathways Program was formally launched by Professor Colleen Hayward in the presence of the wife of the WA Governor, Mrs Tonya McCusker. Positive Pathways provides proactive means to assist women to break the crisis cycle. This breakfast event, capably organised by former Zontian Linley Buchanan, featured an overview of the Refuge from Chairperson Mary Gurgone (member of our club) and a description of the Positive Pathways Program by its manager, Kelda Oppermann. Two women from the refuge passionately spoke about their experiences of the program and it is reassuring to see just what will be achieved from the $250,000 grant from Lotterywest.

The Positive Pathways and SOS projects will feature strongly in the Area 3 Workshop on Saturday 10th May – so book your place today! (see Diary Dates)

7. Penny Flett OA - Officer of the General Division of the Order of Australia

Congratulations to Dr Penny Flett, past member of the Zonta Club of Perth, on becoming an Officer of the Order of Australia on Australia Day 2014. Besides being a very progressive CEO of the Brightwater Care Group, Penny was the 2009 Western Australian of the Year, has been the Chair of the Australian Bravery Decorations Council since 2011 and a member since 1999. She has been a Pro-Chancellor at the University of Western Australia since 2008 and a member of the UWA Senate since 2007. She currently sits on a number boards involved with aged care and has also been on the board of the Water Corporation and was a former President of the Chamber of Commerce and Industry.

Debbie came up with the idea of SOS during days of solo driving in a campervan across the Nullarbor....

Dr Penny Flett AO

Officer of the Order of Australia – female arrangement

Penny first joined the Zonta Club of Perth in 1991 and recently left the club when her husband retired so they could spend more time travelling between her other commitments. Penny has worked tirelessly for her community and it is wonderful to see her valued contribution recognized. Her award is for her distinguished services to aged persons through significant contributions to improve care and support services, to education, and to the community of Western Australia.

The Order of Australia now has five levels: Knight/Dame of the Order (AK/AD), Companion of the Order (AC), Officer of the Order (AO), Member of the Order (AM) and Medal of the Order (OAM).

In our club it has been an honour to have a Member of the Order (Lennie McCall), a recipient of the Medal of the Order (Margaret Medcalf). In addition, the late Jean Oldham was also an OAM and Freda Jacob who recently retired from the club is an AM. It is notable that from 28 March the outgoing Governor General, who is an honorary Zontian, will be known as the Honourable Dame Quentin Bryce AD CVO. 8. Thank you for a Wonderful Holiday

Wendy MacGibbon

Emu Point facing King George Sound

I have received the following letter from a recipient of our Zonta Club of Perth Holiday Relief Scheme.

To Zonta Club of Perth Inc,

Our family can't thank you all enough for our wonderful holiday in Albany. It gave us an opportunity to regroup as a family (which can be very difficult when you have foster children coming and going) and to enjoy each others' company.

We did some sightseeing, visiting absolutely amazingly beautiful places.

Taking in the history of Albany was an eye opener for us all. Mostly though, we enjoyed simply being able to stroll down to Emu Point. The children loved playing in the water and we loved knowing that they are safe in the shallows.

Once again we can't thank you all enough for this break after a particularly hard and stressful year. Many, many thanks.

9. Update from the Philippines

Jeri Sein

The three mangoes that I ate at night as I couldn't sleep. Cost less than $1!

Member Jeri Sein is currently based in the Philippines for six months as an Australian Youth Ambassador for Development (AYAD) - a program run through the Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade.... Jeri is increasing resource capacity at a small Filipino Not-for-Profit Organisation called Sentro ha Pagpauswag ha Panginabuhi (SPPI or Centre for Local Economy Development). Jeri is seeking more donor funding for SPPI so that they can continue to provide sustainable income solutions to local businesses such as seaweed farming. She is also transferring her skills and knowledge of business management (she has an MBA) and writing funding submissions to the staff at SPPI. – Editor.

Me, (right) with my new Peace Corps or American Volunteer friend, who is also based in Catarman

Since 10th February, I've been in Catarman, Northern Samar. It's been an exciting adventure so far – though it can get a bit lonely as there are no other Aussie Volunteers to talk to – but I have plenty of opportunities to make new Filipino friends. I work with 4 other ladies at the office. At first I stayed in temporary accommodation, but have now moved into my new studio room with a separate toilet. My two workmates helped me buy all the furnishings and household items for my new home. They even came around to hang new curtains up and clean and tidy my place. I've also been having lunch working meetings with my workmates.

It's all very relaxed and laid back here. I met the Major of Capul Island where the

The front of my first home

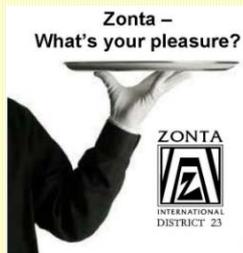

"Smooth and luxurious mosquito net" - it definitely is not!

NGO that I currently work for (they are called SPPI or Centre for Local Economy Development) provides training and capacity building workshops / seminars to seaweed farmers. I also had a chance to visit Capul Island. The scenery is so beautiful. I've travelled in so many different modes of transport: banca to travel between islands, motorboats to travel from the mainland area to Capul Island, jeepneys for long distance travel i.e. 30 minutes or more, tricycles for medium to long distance, and pedicabs for short distances. I'm currently learning how to speak Tagalog. Hopefully by the time I come back to Perth, I will be fairly fluent in conversational Tagalog.

All is well at my end. I'm a lot braver and confident and definitely more adventurous. There have been moments where I've questioned my decision to move here - days when I feel a bit lonely or just miss home or when the toilet was not flushing or when I don't get a hot shower. But I always reflect on the bigger picture and my motivations that led me to here. I'm being mindful of every new experience and celebrating small wins. I'm also laughing a lot more too - it is the only way to get through some rough patches - however there are more good days than down moments. I've also put up more pics and commentary on my website: <http://jerisein.wordpress.com/> - so please have a look.

PS from Jeri's blog. Jeri has now moved house as there were security concerns at the place she had moved into...she has also successfully navigated the local GP system getting treatment for an eye infection; come to terms with the totally cash society, the cold showers and manually flushing the toilet with a pail of water and feels that it is 'normal' to hop on pedicabs or tricycles to get around - well done Jeri!

The views of Perth from Heathcote are beautiful

10. Area 3 Workshop

The theme for this year's Area 3 workshop is "Zonta - what's your pleasure?". The event is hosted this year by the Zonta Club of Perth Northern Suburbs. You will certainly get pleasure from the superb venue in Applecross overlooking the Swan and Canning Rivers. Zontians will attend from the six clubs in WA and it is an opportunity to learn more about our organization and what we can achieve together. With District Governor Ann Horrocks flying in from Bendigo for the event and Zonta International Director Liz Woodgate in attendance, this will be your opportunity to learn first-hand what happens at the District and International levels of Zonta.

The morning's activities will focus on the roles in Zonta - helping you to understand who does what and why and hopefully fit many pieces into your Zonta jigsaw. The afternoon will feature guest speakers from the Zonta House Refuge who will outline how the Positive Pathways Program helps women from a number of refuges and explain how you can help with the Starting Over Support Project. There will also be a special focus on literacy - and what can be done to improve it. At only $50 including morning tea, lunch and afternoon tea, this is a value packed day. Don't miss out and book today using the registration form below.

11. Entertainment Books

The club will have Entertainment Books available from May. They will be in either hard copy or the new downloadable 'app' format. Please let Carole know via zontaperth@gmail.com if you would like one - great value at $65 each.
